Call to Worship		Matthew 1:18-23
	Now the birth of JESUS CHRIST was on this wise: When as HIS mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the HOLY GHOST. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, you son of David, fear not to take to yourself Mary your wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the HOLY GHOST. And she shall bring forth a son, and you shall call HIS name JESUS: for HE shall save HIS people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the LORD by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call HIS name EMMANUEL, which being interpreted is, GOD with us.

~ Preparing for the Kingdom ~

Among professing Christians of today there is a fearful lack of the sympathy that should be felt for souls unsaved. Unless our hearts beat in unison with the heart of CHRIST, how can we understand the sacredness and importance of the work to which we are called by the words: "Watch for ... souls, as they that must give account"? We talk of Christian missions. The sound of our voices is heard, but do we feel CHRIST's tender heart-longing for souls?

The SAVIOUR was an untiring worker. HE did not measure HIS work by hours. HIS time, HIS heart, HIS strength, were given to labor for the benefit of humanity. Entire days were devoted to labor, and entire nights were spent in prayer, that HE might be braced to meet the wily foe in all his deceptive working, and fortified to do HIS work of uplifting and restoring humanity.

Ellen G. White, Testimonies, Vol. IX, p. 45
