The things of nature upon which we look today give us but a faint conception of Eden’s beauty and glory. Yet much that is beautiful remains. Nature testifies that One infinite in power, great in goodness, mercy, and love, created the earth and filled it with life and gladness. Even in their blighted state all things reveal the handiwork of the great Master Artist. Though sin has marred the form and beauty of the things of nature, though on them may be seen traces of the work of the prince of the power of the air, yet they still speak of GOD. In the briers, the thistles, the thorns, the tares, we may read the law of condemnation; but from the beauty of natural things, and from their wonderful adaptation to our needs and our happiness, we may learn that GOD still loves us, that His mercy is yet manifested to the world.

Ellen G. White, Testimonies, Vol. VIII, p. 256

The LORD your God in the midst of you is mighty; HE will save, HE will rejoice over you with joy; HE will rest in HIS love, HE will joy over you with singing.

Call to Worship Psalm 104:1,3-5

Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, You are very great; You are clothed with honor and majesty. Who lays the beams of His chambers in the waters: Who makes the clouds His chariot: Who walks upon the wings of the wind: Who makes His angels spirits; His ministers a flaming fire: Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.
