Those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever; but the secret things belong unto the LORD our GOD. Deuteronomy 29:29. The revelation of HIMSELF that GOD has given in HIS word is for our study. This we may seek to understand. But beyond this we are not to penetrate. The highest intellect may tax itself until it is wearied out in conjectures regarding the nature of GOD; but the effort will be fruitless. This problem has not been given us to solve. No human mind can comprehend HIM. Let not finite man attempt to interpret HIM. Let none indulge in speculation regarding HIS nature. Here silence is eloquence. The Omniscient ONE is above discussion.

Even the angels were not permitted to share the counsels between the FATHER and the SON when the plan of salvation was laid. Those human beings who seek to intrude into the secrets of the Most High show their ignorance of spiritual and eternal things. Far better might they, while mercy’s voice is still heard, humble themselves in the dust and plead with GOD to teach them HIS ways.

A Chicago paper told of a conversation between the son of a pastor in that city and a neighbor boy.

It was quite early in the day, and the family had not yet had breakfast, when a little boy from across the street came into the yard, and beckoned through the window for the six-year-old son to come out and play. The boy answered, “I can’t come now, for we have not had our prayers.” “Prayers. What’s that?” the boy on the outside asked. “Why that’s talking to God, and my daddy knows how to do it too,” was the son’s answer.—By Uthai Vincent Wilcox, Signs of the Times, June 1929
