In order to receive help from Christ, we must realize our need. We must have a true knowledge of ourselves. It is only he who knows himself to be a sinner that Christ can save. Only as we see our utter helplessness and renounce all self-trust, shall we lay hold on divine power.

It is not only at the beginning of the Christian life that this renunciation of self is to be made. At every advance step heavenward it is to be renewed. All our good works are dependent on a power outside of ourselves; therefore there needs to be a continual reaching out of the heart after God, a constant, earnest confession of sin and humbling of the soul before Him. Perils surround us; and we are safe only as we feel our weakness and cling with the grasp of faith to our mighty Deliverer.

Ellen G. White, Testimonies, Vol. VII p. 316

For the Scripture says, Whosoever believes on Him shall not be ashamed.

Welcome

We welcome each of you this morning and especially our visitors. We pray that you will know God’s presence as you worship here with your Fremont Church Family, and hope that you experience His love as His surrounds us with His Spirit.

Visitors or members, please fill out one of our Church Family Friendship Cards located in the pew so that we will know how we can best meet your needs. You can place it in the offering bag during the offering or give it to one of this morning's Worship Team.

May God richly bless you as you worship with us today!

Call to Worship Psalm 111:7-10

The works of His hands are verity and judgment; all His commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness. He sent redemption to His people: He has commanded His covenant for ever: holy and reverent is His name. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: His praise endures for ever.
