Higher Things Demand Our Attention

We must turn away from a thousand topics that invite attention. There are matters that consume time and arouse inquiry, but end in nothing. The highest interests demand the close attention and energy that are too often given to comparatively insignificant things.

Accepting new theories does not bring new life to the soul. Even an acquaintance with facts and theories important in themselves is of little value unless put to a practical use. We need to feel our responsibility to give our souls food that will nourish and stimulate spiritual life.

We welcome each of you this morning and especially our visitors. We pray that you will know God’s presence as you worship here with your Fremont Church Family, and hope that you experience His love as He surrounds us with His Spirit.

Visitors or members, please fill out one of our Church Family Friendship Cards located in the pew so that we can best meet your needs. You can place it in the offering bag during the offering or give it to one of this mornings’ Worship Team.

May God richly bless you as you worship with us today!
