We welcome each of you this morning and especially our visitors. We pray that you will know God and His love as His Spirit surrounds us with His Spirit. Visitors or members, please fill out one of our Church Family Friendship Cards located in the pew so that we will know how we can best meet your needs. You can place it in the offering bag during the offering or give it to one of this morning’s Worship Team.

May God richly bless you as you worship with us today!

Preparing for the Kingdom

Among professing Christians of today there is a fearful lack of the sympathy that should be felt for souls unsaved. Unless our hearts beat in unison with the heart of Christ, how can we understand the sacredness and importance of the work to which we are called by the words: “Watch for … souls, as though you were about to see Him?” We talk of Christian missions. The sound of our voices is heard, but do we feel Christ’s tender heart-longing for souls?

The Saviour was an untinger worker. He did not measure His work by hours. His time, His heart, His strength, were given to labor for the benefit of humanity. Entire days were devoted to labor, and entire nights were spent in prayer, that He might be braced to meet the wily foe in all his deceptive working, and fortified to do His work of uplifting and restoring humanity.
